purchase of this book includes free trial access to million books com where you can read more than a million books for free this is an ocr edition with typos excerpt from book a child to eat at regular times than to be allowed to eat whatever is before other people only because it is in sight and looks nice to some people it seems cruel not to give a child a spoonful out of an egg or to let it eat the fruit it helps to gather i can only say that i have been thankful all my life for the habits given to me of being able to see food without expecting it and of viewing niceties in shops without thinking of buying them unnecessarily chapter v home school or governess the ideal education for girls is that by the parents but three things are wanting to this namely power time and will o far as actual instruction is concerned as to that education which is far more than actual teaching the will is all that is needed let real interest be shown in the child s studies let there be a word of teaching a little encouragement a quarter of an hour s reading as often as possible an eye for a fair exercise in writing or achievement in drawing an ear for a recitation or a piece of music let the children feel that every step in learning renders them more companionable to their father and he will do more for them than is in the power of any other creature if he be a man of leisure he ought to do far more for them but men of leisure are so very rare that it is hardly worth while to speak of them there is an odd notion abroad that children do not learn so well of their nearest relations as of strangers the fact is i suspect that the gift of teaching is not universal and that the person whose profession it is ought either from natural ability endowment or experience to be better qualified than the others besides which there are no old habits of spoiling to be broken through still it is a real disadvantage that mothers do
